

Price list of products and services for corporates

Part 1

We are constantly evolving our services. To keep our Price list easy to understand, it is divided in two parts. The first part lists the currently offered products and services, while the second part contains those we do not offer anymore. The Price list of products and services for corporates (the "Price list") is formed by both parts. It may happen that you use services from both parts of the Price list. Thus, we recommend that you always use the Price list with the relevant Agreement, the General Business Conditions of Raiffeisenbank a.s. ("GBC"), the Product Conditions and, if applicable, the Technical Conditions. Capitalized terms used but not explained in the Price list are defined in GBC, Technical Conditions, Product Conditions or the relevant Agreement.

As of 14 November 2022, the Price list replaces the Price list for Companies and Entrepreneurs (the "Equa Price list") for clients who are not consumers and have concluded an Agreement with Equa bank a.s. or the Bank that identifies the Price list for Companies and Entrepreneurs, or generally the "Price list" or "Price lists", as its integral part. The Price list replaces the above-mentioned Equa Price list particularly to the extent of fees associated with EQUA Corporate Accounts (identified in the original Equa Price list as Current account for individual entrepreneurs, Current account for legal entities, Current account for legal entities All inclusive, Current account SECTOR/Rodinná firma and/or Current account in EUR, USD), to the extent of price arrangements not stipulated in the Price list of products and services for EQUA Corporate Account (the "Equa Bank Business Price list") or where a service only stipulated in the Price list is activated for the current account. References to the "Price list for Companies and Entrepreneurs", "Price list" or "Price lists" contained in the relevant agreements are now considered references to this Price list, all to the extent specified above.

This Price list is effective as of 1. 1. 2024

¹⁾ The deposit balance as of 31 December refers to the total amount of credit current, savings, deposit accounts balances and balances of deposits held by the bank on behalf of the client, including deposit drafts issued by the bank on behalf of the client (the list of deposits is hereinafter referred to collectively as "deposits") as of 31 December of each year. ²⁾ The differential balance is the difference between the deposit balances as of 31 December of the respective year and (i) the amount of CZK 40 million, or (ii) the average balance of the total volume of deposits determined from credit balances of deposits on the last day of each month in the period from September to November of the relevant year; deposits established for a period of 2 weeks on basis of the transaction concluded in accordance with treasury framework agreement do not count towards the differential balance. The higher of the values under (i) and (ii) shall be used to calculate the differential balance. The balance of deposits as of 31 December and the average balance of deposits in accordance with (ii) shall always be expressed in CZK; the exchange rate announced by the Czech National Bank on the date on which the balance of the deposits is taken into account shall be used for making the eventual conversion. If the differential balance of the relevant year is negative, the fee shall be zero. The fee is due by the end of February in the year following 31 December of the relevant year, providing that the client must pay the first fee based on the deposit balances as of 31 December of the relevant year. The fee may be paid by any client's account held at the bank.

¹⁾ Balance means the sum of credit balances on the client's accounts of the same currency that is specified in each respective line. In the event that the total credit balance of accounts held in the same currency at the end of the day is higher than the limit value which is stated in the relevant line, the client shall pay the fee. Accounts mean current accounts held by the bank on behalf of the client. A current account also means the currency component of an account held in multiple currencies. If it is not apparent from the relevant contract whether the account is marked as current, it means an account that is specifically designed to make payment transactions. ²⁾ The amount of the fee that the client shall pay is calculated daily (converted as the actual number/365) by the rate set out in the item fee column. And the fee amount is calculated from the difference between the sum of credit balances of the client's accounts of the same currency at the end of the day and the limit values specified for the respective currency. The total amount of the fee per calendar month then equals the sum of additions for individual days on which the client's obligation to pay the fee arose. The fee is charged retrospectively for the previous calendar month and shall be payable in the following month. The fee will be debited from any of the client's accounts denominated in the same currency with respect to whose balance the client's obligation to pay the fee arose.
